Create an empathy map to understand your customer/user from four perspectives - what they Say, Think, Do, and Feel - in relation to the problem.

SAYS • 'I hope I can meet interesting people here.' • 'Is there an easy way to start a conversation without sounding generic?' • 'What common topics do we share?'	THINKS • 'What if they ignore me or look uninterested?' • 'I don't know much about this technology topic they are discussing.' • 'I wish I had prepared icebreakers.'
DOES • Stands alone near food stalls. • Checks phone screen continuously to avoid awkward eye contact. • Searches online for quick summaries of speakers/topics.	FEELS • Anxious when entering large event halls. • Awkward when starting conversations with strangers. • Hopeful when finding shared interests.
